BARANGAY CABETICAN HISTORY

Barangay Cabetican, originally known as “KEBETISAN” derived from the word “BETIS” which is the name of adjacent barangay. As the time passed by, in the first decade of 1900’s, barangay Kebetisan was absorbed by the town Bacolor and its name change into “CABETICAN” as we know it today. Its absorption into Bacolor was due to geographical reasons.

Barangay Cabetican is an urban type of barangay and it has a plain land form. Presently, it comprises five (5) sitios/puroks. It has a total land area of 327.06 in terms of hectares. The major source of livelihood is Agriculture. On the other hand, it has a total population of 3,481 as of 2017 in which 2,174 are females and 1,307 are males. Out of the total population, 285 of them are considered senior citizens, 517 are children less than 12 years old, 115 are PWD’s, and 68 sick persons. Moreover, the barangay has a total number of 641 households; 556 of them are permanent, 54 semi-permanent and 31 are temporary.

Barangay Cabetican has its road with total length of 4933 meters which consists of the National, Provincial, and all the Barangay roads; they all have a good condition.
